

June 17, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WELLBROOK WINERY PREPARES TO CELEBRATE BLUEBERRY HARVEST
WITH ITS 4th ANNUAL "SUMMERFEST"

Featuring Blueberry Festival – Classic Car Show – Specialty Farmer's Market

Delta, BC – Wellbrook Winery prepares to host its blueberry harvest celebration, in heritage style. The heritage winery, with its strong ties to Delta's blueberry farming community, is an ideal setting for the 4th annual "Summerfest" featuring a Blueberry Festival, classic car show and farmer's market.

Other activities include:

- Blueberry pie eating contest;
- Blueberry bake off;
- Over 30 local vendors & artisans;
- Live music;
- Salmon BBQ lunch and dinner with Chef Romy Prasad;
- And more.

This year's Summerfest will be held on Saturday July 19, 2008 between 10:30am and 5:00pm. Admission to the grounds is free. Partial proceeds from event sales will be donated to the Delta Hospital Auxiliary.

About Wellbrook Winery:

Wellbrook Winery provides an enduring celebration of Delta's farming heritage. The winery is located on a working 55-acre farm. The focal point of this unique winery is the 100-year-old grainery, lovingly restored by owner Terry Bremner, and converted to its retail and tasting facilities. The winery, its grounds and the big barn proudly display vintage farming equipment.

Wellbrook's ties to the blueberry farming community go beyond its agricultural location. The Bremners have been farming in Delta since the 1950s, and they are well known for producing top-quality fruit that is prized for its intensity, full body and rich flavour. In fact, it was the excellence of their crop that prompted Terry Bremner to consider producing fruit wines, as well as fruit juices, using the premium quality berries from their farms.

###

For more information contact:

Pat Wilkinson, Manager, Wellbrook Winery, 604-946-1868